

14 Drugstore Beauty Buys Experts Swear By

We're not ashamed to admit that we're serious beauty product junkies—seriously, nothing beats discovering your new favorite mascara or the perfect eye cream. And although it's easy to assume that the best beauty products come from pricey brands and fancy department stores, there are tons of gems to be found at your local drugstore, too. Don't believe us? We asked some seriously informed insiders to share their all-time favorite beauty buys—and they're all shockingly affordable. Read on for some the top products experts can't live without—and go ahead and add a few to your ever-growing collection. We won't tell.

The Cosmetic Dermatologist: Dr. Paul Jarrod Frank

"This body wash is great because it contains salicylic acid, which helps reduce back acne."

"This product contains salicylic acid to treat breakouts and clogged pores. I also like that it keeps skin clear of blackheads and whiteheads."