

WEEKLY

KIM'S NIGHT OF TERROR
I BEGGED FOR MY LIFE

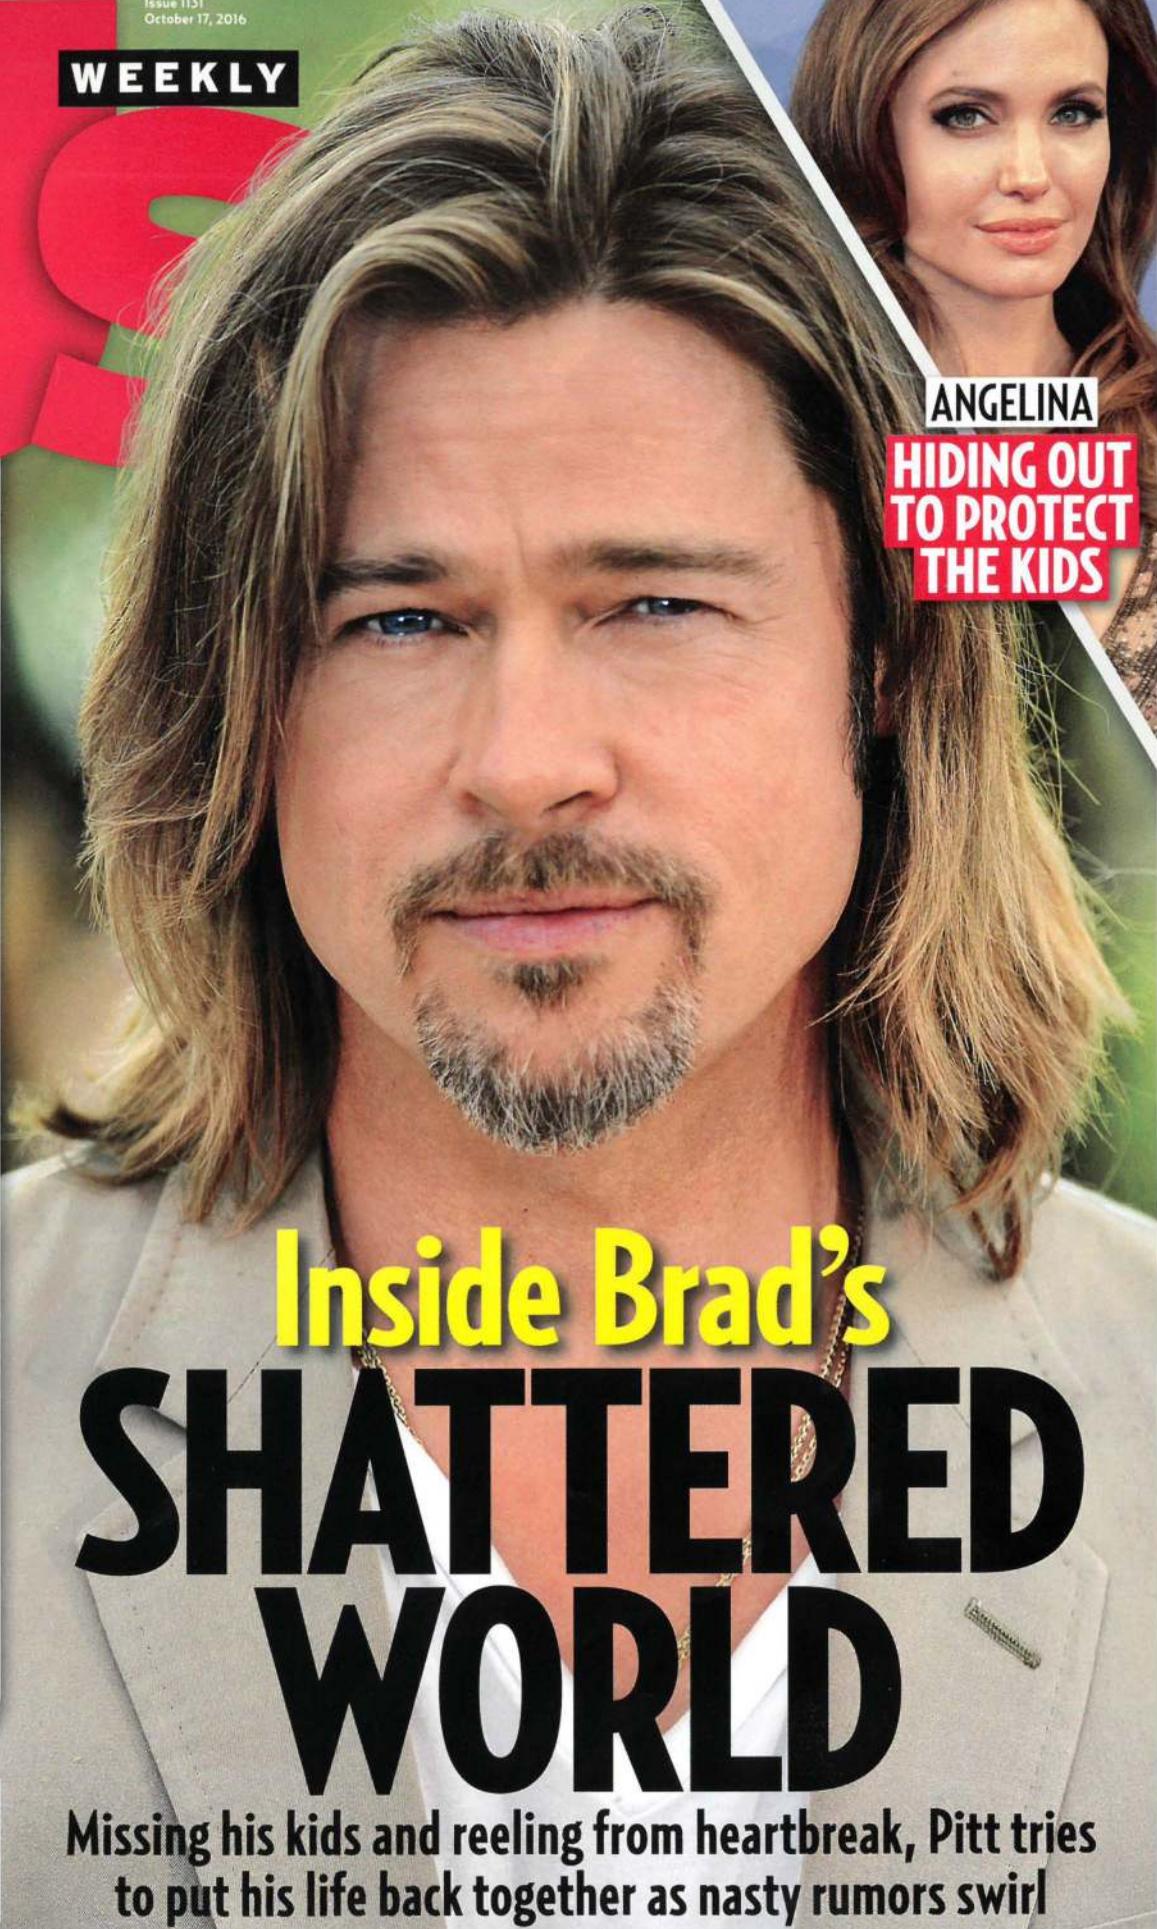

PREGNANT JANET
First Bump Photos!

Fifth Harmony's NORMANI
Fires Back at Racist Bullies

ANGELINA
HIDING OUT TO PROTECT THE KIDS

Inside Brad's SHATTERED WORLD

Missing his kids and reeling from heartbreak, Pitt tries to put his life back together as nasty rumors swirl

$4.99

42>

0 74470 34190 1

FALL Skincare

Sulfur Calming Mask, $36, controlcorrective.com

Palermo (Sept. 19) says she uses Gross' products when her "pores are congested."

Clear Acne

Olivia Palermo's NYC dermatologist Dennis Gross says heat causes oil production to spike from June to August, trapping bacteria and leading to residual blemishes. His Rx: an antibacterial sulfur mask used three times a week.

Derm Institute Cellular Brightening Spot Treatment, $290 for four ampoules, diskincare.com

Fade Sun Spots

Dendy Engelman, Sofia Vergara's NYC dermatologist, recommends a serum with vitamin C. The skin-brightening superhero lightens pigment when used twice a day for two weeks. Sensitive types, she says, can try Derm Institute's "nonirritating" potion.

Hyaluronic Marine Hydrating Modeling Mask, $46 for four, drdennisgross.com

Calm Irritation

Itchy rashes and red bumps run rampant when skin's water content is depleted by chronic sun exposure, explains Gross, so a hyaluronic acid mask is the perfect antidote. The powerful humectant (a.k.a. moisture-binding ingredient) helps skin maintain the optimal level of hydration.

Musts

Had a little too much fun in the sun? Top dermatologists offer at-home remedies for seasonal flare-ups

The Method: Polish for Sensitive Skin, $75, lancer.skincare.com

Clarifying Deep Cleansing Gel, $28, jurlique.com

Shrink Large Pores

Trapped oil and dirt stretch pores, making them appear larger, says Gross. Switch to a witch hazel-packed gel cleanser to break down gunk. The antiseptic ingredient, he relates, "saps oil and deep-cleans thoroughly."

Rapid Resurfacing Peel, $44 for 16 towelettes, murad.com

Dissolve Self-Tanner

Color tends to linger on the cleavage and the neck — areas summer clothing hasn't rubbed. Engelman advises clients to gently erase marks with glycolic acid-soaked pads, which "release pigment from the surface."

Hydrate Dry Patches

Engelman notes the drop in air humidity is to blame for scalliness on elbows, knees and feet. For a quick fix, she suggests applying urea cream, which penetrates the deepest layers of skin to attract and retain water, twice daily for one week.

Excipial 20 percent Urea Intensive Healing Cream, $15 for 3.7 ounces, cvs.com

Heal Crepe-y Skin

As soon as you spot what Beverly Hills dermatologist Harold Lancer calls "a cigarette-papery look" on the lower eyelids caused by sun exposure, exfoliate. Pumpkin enzymes, he says, "slough off damaged cells without any abrasion."

WHERE CELEBS GO PRO For a serious cleaning, stars see facialists

GEORGIA LOUISE ATELIER

Christina Hendricks seeks out NYC facialist Louise for an Elemis Biotec Facial. It employs an ultrasonic peel, microcurrent waves, an oxygen blast and LED light therapy to boost radiance. ($600 for 90 minutes, georgialouise.com)

HENDRICKS

5TH AVENUE DERMATOLOGY SURGERY & LASER CENTER

To even skin tone, Sofia Vergara visits Dr. Paul Jarrod Frank's NYC aesthetician Edyta Jarosz for the OxyLight Facial, which features diamond microdermabrasion. ($500 for 90 minutes, pfrankmd.com)

VERGARA

JOANNA VARGAS SKINCARE

Ultrasound therapy and radiofrequency waves in the bicoastal pro's Forever Facial, loved by Jessica Alba, feel like a warm massage and trigger collagen production that firms loose skin around the jawline and neck. ($850 for 60 minutes, joannavargas.com)

ALBA